

For awaking to real conscience: Get rid of attachments

From the author: This material is aimed at the inquiring beings, who try to find a real sense to their existence, who wish to grow inwardly and become into authentic sons and messengers of our Common Creator, that spread, here and there, the necessary messages in order that humanity retake their way, living in harmony with every created creature and avoiding the destruction of nature, that is, in order that he return to purposes foreseen by our Endlessness. With the above in mind, be ready to live and feel this adventure, to which I invite you, at least your mind must stay open and alert, and do not look it as in your present way of celebration, I do not intend to offend but to exemplify what is false in present man. Unveil the esoteric, which is hidden behind the literal meaning, only like that you will be able to reach the crucial point of my writings.
