

Spirit Scopes: Messages for First Names

Your first name provides information for your spiritual growth by: revealing your life purpose, divulging life lessons and providing life affirming messages. For centuries, we have learned about ourselves through horoscopes based on birth dates. What if we could learn more about ourselves through divinely revealed information about our first names? Lahna Harris has received a connection with Spirit and has been given channeled messages for over 190 names (so far). Your name, family and friends names may be included in this volume. Whether praising talents, giving direction, pointing out lessons needed, or revealing a life purpose, the messages serve as a blessing to all who are intended to read this book.
