

My Souls Journey

Today, I am best known as George Vergara, MD - a board certified cardiologist with a practice in Coral Gables FL. In the past, my soul has been known by other names in other ages. Maybe the best known was Marcus Aurelius, emperor of the Roman Empire. Over the span of my present life I have learned to communicate with my guides. It is at their urging that I share my experiences in the hope that they may help others understand the importance and the meaning of their own lives. Come then, let me share my journey.
